

Staci Yates is the Director of Human Trafficking Recovery Services at My House in Wasilla, Alaska, and lived experience expert. Prevention education and legislative efforts have been key in her efforts to bring state-wide awareness and solutions to end sex trafficking. Yates sits on the Governor's Council of Human and Sex Trafficking and chairs the subcommittee of Victim's Services and Housing Committee, while also serving on the Education subcommittee of the Council. She is also the chair of the Alaska Stop Human Trafficking Alliance.
